

SNOW EMERGENCY UPDATE

Calamar appreciates the patience and understanding of our residents who live in our Buffalo/Southtowns communities while we struggle through this severe weather system that has paralyzed much of Western New York. Our staff is working diligently with our vendors to safely remove the snow from our communities. Calamar will continue to address all concerns until this event is behind us.