Board Game Benefits:

A classic in family entertainment, the traditional board game is more than nostalgia. According to several studies, board games could be key to keeping your mind active and healthy. In fact, they promote overall health for people of all ages!!

Mark your calendar for For the Holiday Open House December 1 & 2 at the Corning Glass Museum. There will be lots of entertainment and activities.

Happy Holidays! Tis' the Season for magical memories, gift giving, celebrations, spending time with loved ones, meeting up with friends near and far, getting out and seeing the spectacular lights and festivities, singing and finding joy and happiness. We also, come to the year end of 2018. Some of us are fortunate to have family & friends to celebrate this beautiful holiday season with and some are not so fortunate, if you know of someone who could use a smile and some company, please reach out to them, if not, please let me know and I will reach out to them. It is the joy of giving.
