

The Reggi Library Book Review

LOST: by James Patterson & James O. Born Review by Mary B.

The book was very good and keeps you guessing!~ A detective from Miami Florida was exposed to children from Amsterdam who are victims' of human trafficking. A special connection develops with these children and other children from various countries.

The detective escorts the children back to Amsterdam so they could be returned to their native countries. The book goes into Human Trafficking and its tragedies. The caring detective along with a police woman from Amsterdam, work together to stop the trafficking.

Stay tuned..next month book review will be submitted by Betty W.

"Come as strangers, live as friends"

March means...the first day of baseball season... March Madness...snow aconites and crocuses... St. Patrick's Day...and hopefully early signs of Spring! On March 8th, remember to spring your clocks an hour ahead to Daylight Savings Time.

We will be changing the furnace filters this month so watch your resident mailbox for notices about the date and time we will need to come to your apartment. Please remember, all holiday decorations should be down by now from the patios. I am looking forward to seeing the patios filled with plants and chairs and sunshine soon! Want to hear all the news? Join me Friday mornings at 9:30 for announcements and they stay for a cup of coffee and a bite to eat! Mary Beth

Quote of the Month: "This life is yours. Take the power to choose what you want to do and do it well. Take the power to love what you want in life and love it honestly. Take the power to walk in the forest and be a part of nature. Take the power to control your own life. No one else can do it for you. Take the power to make your life happy." -- Susan Polis Schutz
